

Irish Olympic Handball Association Disciplinary Sanctions

As set out in the IOHA Disciplinary Procedure Document, where an alleged breach of Discipline has taken place and having been investigated by the Disciplinary Committee been found to be true the Board of the Irish Olympic Handball Association retain the right to impose the following sanctions:

If the conduct of any Member is such as shall in the opinion of the Board be injurious to the character or interests of the Association or render that Member unfit to remain within the Association, the Board may suspend such a Member from membership indefinitely or otherwise limit for a stated period the rights of membership of that Member or may expel such a Member from membership.